

Trustee Biography – Neil Herman

Neil Herman trained and qualified as an accountant after leaving school and has more than 45 years' experience in finance, procurement, and mergers and acquisitions across multinational organisations in Europe and the USA.

He brings extensive expertise in finance, business strategy and people management, and also holds an MBA from Aston University. Neil is committed to supporting communities and widening opportunities for others. Alongside his trustee role at Ideal for All, he is a trustee for two West Midlands charities and works with Worcestershire schools and Aston University to support students and graduates.

In his spare time, he enjoys playing guitar, golf, watching sport, and volunteering at Worcester theatres.
