

Trustee Biography – Sanjiv Verma

Sanjiv Verma is a dedicated Trustee of Ideal for All with a lifelong commitment to supporting disabled people and strengthening local communities through volunteering and advocacy. Living with cerebral palsy, he brings valuable lived experience alongside more than three decades of voluntary service with organisations including Citizens Advice and Sandwell Asian Family Support, where he has supported administration, governance and community engagement.

Sanjiv has served on a range of committees at Ideal for All, contributing to the organisation's governance, membership development, independent living initiatives and community activities. His longstanding commitment to volunteering has been recognised through several award nominations, including the London 2012 Olympic Torchbearer programme. Passionate about inclusion and empowering others, Sanjiv is committed to ensuring disabled people have opportunities to participate fully in their communities and to helping Ideal for All continue delivering high-quality services that make a positive difference.
